Eevo and Sim are best friends who love to play together. But one day, Eevo starts to feel tired and wants to take a nap. Sim tries to convince Eevo to play just a little longer, but Eevo insists that he needs to rest.

Sim reluctantly agrees to let Eevo nap, but he can't help but feel a little disappointed. He goes outside to play by himself, but he soon realizes that playing alone isn't as much fun as playing with his friend.

Just when Sim is about to give up and go home, he sees Eevo waking up from his nap. Eevo is feeling refreshed and ready to play again. Sim is so happy to see his friend awake that he forgets all about his disappointment.

The two friends spend the rest of the day playing together, and they have a wonderful time. As the sun starts to set, Eevo and Sim know that it's time to go home. But before they go, they promise each other that they will play together again soon.

Just a Little Later with Eevo and Sim is a beautifully illustrated book that is perfect for children ages 3-7. This heartwarming story teaches children about the importance of friendship, the value of cherishing every moment, and the power of imagination.
