Chapter 1: Sofia's Enchanting Embrace

Venturing beyond Sofia, Mishi and Mashi ventured to the picturesque town of Veliko Tarnovo, once the capital of the Second Bulgarian Empire. As they climbed the cobblestone streets, they entered a realm of medieval wonders, such as the Tsarevets Fortress and the Forty Martyrs Church, adorned with exquisite frescoes.

Nestled amidst the towering Rila Mountains, Mishi and Mashi sought solace in the tranquil haven of Rila Monastery. This UNESCO World Heritage Site captivated them with its intricate architecture, vibrant frescoes depicting biblical scenes, and the scent of incense filling the air.

Chapter 4: Plovdiv's Architectural Tapestry

Their journey continued to Plovdiv, Bulgaria's second-largest city. Here, they wandered through the charming Old Town, marveling at its eclectic blend of architectural styles from Roman ruins to Ottoman mosques. The Kapana Creative District ignited their imaginations with its vibrant street art and trendy boutiques.

Chapter 5: The Enchanting Valley of Roses

In the heart of the Kazanlak Valley, Mishi and Mashi stepped into a fragrant paradise, known as the Valley of Roses. Surrounded by fields of blooming roses, they learned about the centuries-old tradition of rose oil production in Bulgaria.
