

Stay Safe: The Comprehensive Crime Map of Orlando

Orlando is a vibrant and growing city, but like any urban area, it has its share of crime. In 2022, there were over 10,000 reported crimes in Orlando, including murder, robbery, assault, and theft.

While the overall crime rate in Orlando is lower than the national average, there are certain areas of the city that are more dangerous than others. For example, the downtown area and the International Drive tourist corridor are known for high rates of property crime, while the Parramore neighborhood has a high rate of violent crime.

If you're planning to visit or live in Orlando, it's important to be aware of the crime risks and to take steps to stay safe.

There are a number of things you can do to stay safe in Orlando, including:

- Be aware of your surroundings. Pay attention to the people and things around you, and be on the lookout for anything suspicious.
- Avoid walking alone at night. If you must walk alone at night, stay in well-lit areas and be aware of your surroundings.
- Don't carry large amounts of cash or valuables. If you do carry valuables, keep them close to your body and out of sight.
- Be careful about who you trust. Don't give out personal information to strangers, and be wary of people who approach you on the street.
- Report any suspicious activity to the police. If you see something suspicious, don't hesitate to call the police.
