

Vsevolod Meyerhold: Routledge Performance Practitioners

Vsevolod Meyerhold was a groundbreaking Russian theatre director who revolutionized the art form in the early 20th century. His innovative techniques and theories had a profound impact on the development of modern theatre, and his work continues to be studied and admired by theatre practitioners around the world.

This book, published by Routledge, provides a comprehensive overview of Meyerhold's life and work. It includes essays by leading scholars on topics such as Meyerhold's early career, his association with the Russian avant-garde, his development of biomechanics, and his later work in the Soviet Union. The book also includes a selection of Meyerhold's own writings, as well as a chronology of his life and work.
